

National Landscape Awards

2011

In association with

HorticultureWeek

British Association of Landscape Industries

Headline sponsor

rigby taylor

Award Winner

Patricia Fox

Project
Design
Practice

Regents Park Terrace, London
Aralia Garden Design & Build Contractor

Good spatial definition and transition is achieved selecting five different compartments, driven by the building's five levels. This may be more of a problem as the plants mature but careful maintenance could mitigate this. Good use of existing York stone flags and the overall result looks interesting and inviting. A very competent design with a traditional approach drawn from in-depth discussions with the clients.

